Appetizers, soups, entrees galore. Many dishes have faux meats, but can also find tofu & veggie selections too. Try the Carmelized Chicken or the Teriyaki Salmon. Nearly everything is vegan except for a couple of drinks and the flan. Vegan cake from Black China Bakery available for dessert. High ceilings and elaborate moldings befitting a former hotel lobby. Outside, the neighborhood is a bit rough. But the only real complaint is the service, which is typically indifferent. Family also owns Golden Lotus in Oakland.
